In the event that more than one person finishes on the same points, there is a tie-break prediction requiring you to guess the total number of goals scored in the 64 games played in the tournament. There are no extra points awarded for this and it will only be used in the event of a tie to decide the first three places. If points are still level, any prize entitlement will be shared. All entries will be adjudicated by the Management of Quarry Green FC and are final.
